

Test Practice/Lesson in 20m x 60m arena with Jill Grant

Sunday 23 September 2018

At Cousland Park Livery and Training

Come and practice your test, or have a lesson before our winter competition season begins in October, with Jill Grant, a highly respected dressage trainer and rider. Jill teaches all levels from Intro to Grand Prix. She trained with Carl Hester and Stephen Clarke and has won 14 Scottish Dressage Championships. Jill was previously an event rider who competed up to Advanced level and is able to help event riders improve their dressage phase.

The choice is yours to practice a test or simply have a flatwork lesson. The arena will be set up (20m x 60m).

Open to all Riding Club Members

Cost: £45 for a private 45 minute lesson or £35 for a one hour shared lesson (2 people). This includes school hire.

Closing date: Friday 21 September (or when all slots are filled).

Organiser: Susan Loch on behalf of the Scottish Dressage Group. Contact details 07758395304 or susan.loch@sky.com

If for any reason you need to withdraw please let Susan know as soon as possible.

Please use Horse Monkey to book your session